Record up to 68 Caller ID messages sequentially.

Before You Begin:
- Caller ID
- Use the unit with the telephone battery installed and the unit is turned off.
- Program all numbers after the unit is turned on.
- To prevent battery leakage, use the alkaline batteries.
- Do not store in extreme heat, cold or wet locations.
- If you are not going to use the telephone for a few days, disconnect the phone cord from the wall outlet.
- Never install telephone jacks in wet locations unless the jack is specifically designed for wet locations.
- Make sure the junction box and line cord are well connected or poor contact may cause the unit to autoroll off.
- Use the included line cord to connect the unit directly to the wall jack. Do not use an extension cord.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.
- Make sure you have subscribed to your local telephone company for the Caller ID service.

Wall mounting installation:
- Placing the telephone in a quiet location may improve reception.
- Install the unit horizontally so that it does not overheat.

Installing the Telephone:
1. Press the Telephone menu button or Recall button.
2. Press the MENU button until the Local Area Code menu appears.
3. Press the UP or DOWN button to select the Local Area Code.
4. Press the SET button and modify it to 0 through 9.
5. Press the SET button again to edit the next setting item.
6. The Local Area Code setting allows up to a maximum of 5-digit code. After setting the code, the PABX code will be inserted and the IDD 0 will still be locked. The IDD 0 is lock at the second digit, and continue with programming.

Local Area Code:
The first digit of PABX code flashes. The Local Area Code setting allows up to a maximum of 5-digit code. After setting the code, the PABX code will be inserted and the IDD 0 will still be locked. The IDD 0 is lock at the second digit, and continue with programming.

PABX Code:
- Pressing the PABX code button allows you to dial the PABX code after dialing the first digit of the number. The PABX code setting allows up to a maximum of 5-digit code. After setting the code, the PABX code will be inserted and the IDD 0 will still be locked. The IDD 0 is lock at the second digit, and continue with programming.

Memory Dial Button:
- Memory dialing is useful if you frequently call the same number(s).

Phone number:
- When the handset is not in use, pressing the SPEAKER button will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.

Wall Mounting:
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Troubleshooting:
- No dial tone in the handset:
  - Check phone cord connection.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a line switch is enabled.

No Ring or On Hook Ringer Exceed:
- No ring on phone:
  - Check if the telephone is connected to the same phone line.
  - Check if a remote phone is connected to the same phone line.

Resetting the Call Log:
- Pressing the SPEAKER button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.

Installing Batteries:
- User can enter the telephone number first and check the number to be dialed, like pressing speaker button or picking up the handset will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- During dialing, the unit will pause for 1s after dialing the PABX code. If the IDD service is not available, the phone will dial out the displayed telephone number.
- The junction box may be get rusty. If so, use a dry cloth to clean it.