

The Fulbright-RAF Scholar Award 2022-2023

The Romanian-U.S. Fulbright Commission announces the Fulbright-RAF (Romanian-American Foundation) Scholar Award, designed for the Romanian academics from technical universities and departments who wish to carry out a semester-long fellowship in residence at the University of Rochester – Ain Center for Entrepreneurship, for study and independent research, curriculum development, classroom observation and participation in community-based entrepreneurial activities.

The program starts in January 2023 and will provide the Romanian fellows with valuable experience enabling them to develop high-quality entrepreneurship education opportunities for university students throughout Romania.

► Eligible Fields: Entrepreneurship & Entrepreneurial Studies

► Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- hold Romanian citizenship; green card holders and persons with dual (Romanian and U.S.) citizenship are ineligible;
- hold a PhD degree and carry out regular teaching responsibilities;
- demonstrate interest and ability to fully participate in the educational experience and to implement entrepreneurship education upon return;
- show willingness to advance educational innovation through development of a national entrepreneurship education association;
- have the support* of their home university for achievement of high impact results for Romanian students;
- show a proficiency in English corresponding to the activities required by this type of program; a language proficiency test is not required.

* Home university administrators should submit the University Letter of Support to confirm their support for scholar's participation in the program and also for implementation of entrepreneurship education opportunities upon his/her return.

► Each applicant will be required to submit:

- an online application form (<https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2022>);
- a personal statement uploaded to the online application;
- one letter of support, provided by the applicant's home university administrator/vice-rector or faculty dean using the standard form, directly uploaded to the online application by January 20, 2022;
