

C/C++ Intern

Our C++ internship project for students and graduates are designed to develop your programming and analytical skills by working with cutting edge technologies in a complex area of navigation systems. We provide you the opportunity to work with a passionate team of professionals. You will develop applications for navigation and mapping products.

Project description

Within the 10 months of the internship project students/graduates will be paired in teams and will develop a small app of their own free choice in Location Based Services area. They will work with C/C++ technologies.

We will assure a full support package including mentorship that will help you with the technical issues and accommodation in the company.

Requirements

- C++ knowledge
- Data structures and algorithms
- OOP knowledge
- Willing to learn new technologies
- Paying attention to details
- Strong team oriented
- Analytical thinking
- Good English skills
- Good communication skills

We offer

- Latest technologies
- All technical support
- Learning sessions
- Paid internship
- Opportunity of a permanent full-time/part-time job at the end of the program

Our Internship Program start on March 18th, so if you want to apply send your CV until February 15th to hreu@telenav.com