

Winners of the contest “The Europe of Student Journalists”

The contest “The Europe of Student Journalists” is organized by the Representation of the European Union in Romania. This contest is dedicated to Bachelor, Master and Ph.D. students in journalism and communication studies from Romania. Candidates are invited to submit audio, video and online materials, related to European topics.

At the 4th Edition of the contest “The Europe of Student Journalists from 2013, the first prize for online materials is shared by Cătălin Hopulele from “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iasi and Ioana Nicolescu / Marinița Claudia Pop from the Technical University of Cluj-Napoca. Ioana Nicolescu and Marinița Claudia Pop study journalism in the North University Centre of Baia Mare. The winning material is entitled “Romania, a different approach for the foreign citizens”.